A Couple of Big Matchups

The biggest matchup of week five will see defending champion and current #1 Amherst traveling to #4 Wellman. This could be a matchup of things to come in the playoffs....Next on the matchup scale has to be #5 Woodson heading to #10 Gordon. I have a feeling Woodson may just put the wood to the Longhorns....Another big game has #12 Milford meeting #16 Loraine in Blanket. ...The Saturday Samnorwood-Silverton game will be a good test for both teams...Jayton and Blackwell headlines two preseason distict favorites....Lazbuddie faces another tough test against Jesus Chapel...When Morgan goes to Aquilla, Coach Lonnie Flippen will be going against his old team....Bynum at Cranfills Gap and Rule at Trent could be four teams looking for their first wins of the season....Panther Creek heads to May where two former giants of six-man try to get back on track....out!

Let's Tie One On

The big story this weekend has to include three ties. Rarely are there ties in six-man, but to have three in one weekend is truly remarkable.

In a low-scoring affair, Cranfills Gap broke their 28-game losing streak by tying Walnut Springs 18-18. The Lions now have the unruly task of facing Gordon this weekend.

Another tie was the Highland-Paint Rock 30-30 tie. Highland scored with six minutes to go, but neither team could muster any more points.

The third tie was between Balmorhea and Grandfalls-Royalty. G-R lead most of the way, but Balmorhea scored with less than a minute to go, evening the contest at 60.

The Bears then failed on a fake PAT attempt to leave the game deadlocked.

In other big news, Loraine knocked off the top ranked private, Midland Christian 36-30. The Bulldogs showed why they were a preseason top ten pick.

Mullin bounced back from last weekend's loss to crush Panther Creek 61-14. Panther Creek now falls to 0-3. Mullin's Charlie Smith injured his knee and will get an MRI on Tuesday.

Iredell was hammered by Happy Hill Academy 84-0 at halftime. Happy Hill must face Coolidge in two weeks and may get a dose of their own medicine.

Stuff

Top-ranked Amherst seems to be getting plenty of practice defending the pass. Coach Shely's team witnessed close to 70 attempts in the last two games against them. That's a lot of respect for their tough rush defense....Dewayne Miles 12 carries for 259 yards last weekend....Strawn's Justin Lawrence had 302 yds. on 16 carries this past weekend...Grandfalls-Royalty's Alfredo Soto carried the ball 22 times for 252 yds and 4TD's against Balmorhea....In that same game, Balmorhea's Ismael Dutchover had over 400 all-purpose yardsWoodson's Pete Miller has 3 TD's on kick returns, he also had 203 yds on 5 carries in week one against Rule....Strawn's Shannon Hopkins has kicked 3 FG's (34, 28, 26 yds) and is 16-20 on PAT's...Walnut Springs defeated Dallas Academy 12-8 last week....also Strawn actually defeated Benjamin 48-0....

big games in week four

#9 Jonesboro @ #13 Coolidge

This is a great matchup between a Jonesboro team that is always near the top ten and a Coolidge team that should make a run in district 14. I expect this one to go to the wire. Last season: Jonesboro 42, Coolidge 13.

#24 Silverton @

#8 Guthrie

NFL Films is supposedly filming this game for a special on grassroots football. It should be a good game as Silverton comes in at 3-0. I expect Harvey Wellman's boys to be too tough. Last season: Guthrie 54, Silverton 6.

#14 Richland Springs @ #19 Zephyr

This is a battle between two hot teams. Both suffered losses in week one, but have bounced back with big wins. Expect a high scoring shootout. Last season RS 64, Zephyr 38.

The Game of the Week #2 Mullin @ #6 Covington

This one should be great. A matchup of two great backs, Petey Salaiz and Blue Willis. The Owls would really like to pay back the Bulldogs for last season's loss. CW Williams appears to have them clicking and should be a good test for Mullin. Mullin may be without starting QB/DL Charlie Smith because of a knee injury he sustained last Friday night. He will have an MRI Tuesday. Last season: Mullin 79, Covington 61.

#46 Lefors @

#49 Follett

Always a battle as these two district one rivals take aim at each other. Last season: Lefors 59, Follett 44 (non district), Follett 68, Lefors 42 (district).

#28 Lazbuddie vs #33 Dell City

This is a solid matchup of two young teams with young, quality QB's. Last season Lazbuddie 63, Dell City 38.

Trivia Question: What current assistant coach led his former team to two state titles?

Last week's answer: Highland Coach Kerry Owens threw a pass to Everett Wilson who lateraled to John Paul Jones for a score in Highland's 38-16 loss to Milford in the 1980 championship game.
