Everything Counts

Every game is important now, there are some matchups that are just a little more exciting than the others.... At the top of the slate has to be the Amherst-Lazbuddie rematch. The Longhorns are the last team to beat the Bulldogs.... Near the top of the hit chart, Milford at Covington looms as huge. This could be for the top spot in district 14.... Borden County has been playing well and their meeting with Hermleigh may help decide a playoff spot in district 6.... also Loraine at Westbrook should be a good game in that district.... Jumping to district 8, Dell City travels to Buena Vista for a big one.... Of course in district 5, the fun continues as Wellman and Klondike face off. We should know more about the importance of this one next week, but one team may be playing for survival.... and then there's the cousin-cage match between Zephyr and Mullin. These teams know each other way too well, and half of them are related . Last year it was a shootout and I don't expect things to change much this time....

Ready To Play

In a couple of key matchups, two big name six-man schools showed they had what it takes to win big games. Both #1 Amherst and #5 Gordon showed up ready to play and defeated highly ranked opponents.

The Bulldogs did it despite the fact that at least four starters were suffering from injuries. Tommy Traylor, Brandon Pointer, Jerry Frausto, and Dewayne Miles were all either injured before or during this game. Frausto will probably require surgery this week and Traylor has been beat up all season. The others played hurt and are expected to be in the lineup next week.

Gordon started out quick against Woodson, jumping to a 28-0 halftime lead. The Longhorns used a balanced attack rushing attack led by Jason Sizemore and John Leven.

In other news, Grady came away with a forfeit against Ira, as the Bulldogs didn't have enough players after grades. Ira must now wait until the next grading period to see if there will be any more games.

Milford and Zephyr also came away with big wins against quality opponents this weekend. Zephyr was down 20-8 at the half against Jonesboro and roared back for a 44-20 win. Also Rochelle continued it's undefeated season with a 48-0 win over Novice.

big games in week six

#18 Coolidge @ #8 Milford

Coolidge comes off an upset loss to Happy Hill and needs to quickly rebound to have a chance against the Bulldogs. Milford crushed Loraine and appears to be heading into district play at full speed. Last season: Milford 54, Coolidge 6

#55 Ropes @

#54 Meadow

Who would of thought that these two playoff squads would both be O-5? This is a chance for one to get back onto the right track.

Last season: Meadow 44, Ropes 34.

#28 Cherokee @ #19 Richland Springs

These two don't care for each other very much. This is a great rivalry that Cherokee has owned, and should be a hard-nosed as they get. Last season: Cherokee 30, Richland Springs 13.

#34 Miami @ #20 Samnorwood

Who would have though that the Dolphins would lose before their counterpart Warriors? Miami has played solid football and is a pleasant surprise in the panhandle. Last season: Samnorwood 59, Miami 14

The Game of the Week
#12 Wellman @ #11 Sands

Wellman comes off a big loss to #1 Amherst despite 196 yards on 29 carries from Sean Rowden. They can't wallow in the loss as this tough district race begins at Billy Barnett's Sands. The loser of this game faces an uphill battle, while the winner can breathe only slightly easier. Sands has been averaging almost 50 points a game while allowing only 13. Last season: Sands 54, Wellman 48.

#14 Woodson @
#37 Paint Creek

The Cowboys need to recover from their pounding they took from Gordon. Paint Creek looks to be getting better each week. Last season Woodson 60, PC 16.

#2 Covington @ #15 Trinidad (Saturday)

A battle of two unbeatens. The Trojans haven't really been tested and hope to stop the high octane Owl offense. This winner gets the inside track at a playoff spot in a tough district. Last season: Covington 50, Trinidad 0.
