who knows?

Next week doesn't show many keys yet, but maybe after this Friday we'll see things a little clearer.

In district 8, Balmorhea travels to Dell City for a battle royale with playoff implications. This should be a high scoring affair...Of course in district 4, Guthrie goes to Rochester in another key matchup....In district 12 there's the Zephyr @ Sidney game that looms large...In one both Miami-Follett and McLean-Lefors are biggies....the biggest matchup of the week could be Morgan at Strawn. Both should be undefeated and the loser would still have to face Gordon....

Shockers

The formerly second ranked Covington Owls were upset this past Saturday night by a determined Trinidad bunch 17-14, in what many have described as the craziest six-man game they had seen in a long time.

This game included almost 30 penalties, the ejection of Covington QB Mike Fitzpatrick, and back-to-back safeties.

During one stretch, Covington had the ball bounce off Blue Willis and into the end zone where he was tackled for a safety. This put Trinidad up 9-6. On the ensuing kick, a Trinidad player caught the ball on the one yard line and stepped back into the end zone and went to a knee for a safety for Covington.

Obviously there were still some bad vibes out left over from Friday the 13th.

In other news, Cranfills Gap won their first game in over 30 tries, defeating Aquilla 51-40. Rochelle moved to 6-0 with a 58-32 victory over Star. Harrold also put its first points on the board, losing 43-6 to Northside. Grandfalls Royalty tied Dell City 28-28, surprising the Cougars and tightening the ultra competitive district eight. Sands crushed a tough Wellman squad that lost its key player, Sean Rowden in the first quarter.

Finally

Richland Springs finally exorcized the deamons of years past to beat Cherokee 36-14 this past Friday. RS had not defeated the Indians since 1984 and it was only the second victory against them in 17 years.

Elsewhere, EP Faith Christian stunned EP Jesus Chapel in private school action 38-32....Look for Mullin's Charlie Smith to start against Zephyr, he's been cleared by a doctor....Matt Strickland of Lueders-Avoca rushed for 312 yards on 42 carries in a loss to Newcastle.

big games in week seven-aka fighting for survival

#4 Milford @ #8 Covington

A huge game for Covington. A loss here and they are virtually out of the playoff hunt. Milford destroyed Coolidge and looks to gain the upper hand in the district race. Last season: Milford 62, Covington 14

#18 Wellman @

#2 Klondike
Again, here's a school that's in the fight of their life. Wellman comes in on a two game losing streak and must win to stay alive. Klondike, behind Tanner Ethridge, looks to put the final nail in their coffin. Last season: Wellman 51, Klondike 33.

#48 Dell City @ #25 Buena Vista

Dell City, a perennial playoff team, comes off a tie to G-R and needs a win to have any hope. BV looks to step into the district 8 drivers seat. Last season: Dell City 26, Buena Vista 0.

#3 Mullin @ #9 Zephyr

They live eleven miles apart, in two different counties. They are related to each other. They they are playing for more than just first place.

The Game of the Week

#1 Amherst @ #14 Lazbuddie

Amherst rolls into the corral of the last team to beat them. This huge rivalry takes on even larger meaning, since the loser here must still has to take on a Whitharal team that seems to be coming on. They are a contrast in styles. Look for the Longhorns pass often behind QB Justin St. Clair. The Bulldogs, on the other hand, will hammer the ball while in tight with RB Dewayne Miles. This game will likely be determined defense. Last Season: Lazbuddie 34, Amherst 28.

The Superintendent of Zephyr even graduated from Mullin, and his dad is still the Mayor of Mullin and an assistant coach. This is what they call a rivalry. Last season: Mullin 48, Zephyr 46.

#30 Rochester @

#12 Jayton

This should be a battle. Who would feel comfortable losing this game and still have to play Guthrie? Last season: Jayton 48, Rochester 0.

#20 Jonesboro @ #60 Buckholts

Could this be for the district title? Buckholts is 1-5 and holds an inside position for a playoff spot by virtue of their win last week. Last season: Jonesboro 55, Buckholts 8.
