The Huntress Report

the six man weekly

November 8, 1994

$2.50

Welcome to the special playoff edition of The Huntress Report. As I have stated over the past few weeks, my goal is to provide consistent and entertaining information about UIL six man football.

I have really appreciated the support I have received around the state from fans, players, coaches, and administrators. It is through your help that this has become a reality.

After monsoon-like conditions across the state and a tension-filled coin flip, the playoffs are finally here and the 'big dogs' have settled at the top. I mean this not just as a figure of speech, but literally three of the top five teams are nicknamed the bulldogs. It is also only fitting that top-ranked Mullin must go through Panther Creek if they are to win the title.

I will continue to publish updates throughout the playoffs. They will be on sale at the games I go to or please feel free to contact me in San Antonio. Good luck to the final 30 and I hope you enjoy this edition.
